

A message from the Head of School to Parents...

Celebrating Black History and Cultural Diversity— wow what an amazing week!

As part of the National theme Reclaiming Narratives we have learnt about 7 new people, who they are and their impact on the communities around them. Mostly, authors or poets —their books are in our library for all to read.

Thank you to all our parents that came in this week to share their culture with us. We have developed our knowledge of different traditions and languages and tasted some exciting new food!
