

A message from the Head of School to Parents...

Our Year 6 pupils have had a busy week canvassing for their roles of Head of School Council and House Captains.

We have had posters up around the school and some very original campaigns. Every child and staff member has voted and the pupils elected were....

House Captains

We also welcomed so many significant males into school on Wednesday. We love having you into school to experience what day to day life is like for your children.

From a Railway Carriage

Faster than cheaters, faster than horses, mountains,
valleys, rivers and gorges.

And charging along like knights in a fight, flying a kite in the air
at night.

All of the sights of the hills and
the daisies,

fly by children who are so crazy.

And the forests, ever so green,
Rusty stations full of steam
